150th Commemorative Edition History Book

Look back at the first 150 years with new pictures and information. What were the membership dues? Who was the first pastor not born in Sweden? What happened to the Swan Lake bell? Where is an unmarked cemetery with unmarked graves? You'll discover that and more in this legacy book.

150th Commemorative Ornament

A limited number of original ornaments commemorating Gethsemane's 150 years will be available in time for your Christmas decorating and gift giving. A special ornament has also been made available for previous Swan Lake members.

Cookbook & Stories

What's a Gethsemane story without food? This book is packed with mouth-watering recipes from the past through today, complete with pictures and stories of Gethsemane's food and fellowship throughout the years. Eat like a Lutheran with this new book!

Make checks payable to Gethsemane Lutheran Church.

Ornaments, cookbooks, and history books will be available September 24, 2023. Please contact the office for financial assistance to purchase ornaments or books, or if you wish to donate ornaments or books.
